

beneficial Jin tumours.- External' applications of these pills, which "are called JJShdnkari Vartis, prove curative in all forms of ocular affections.

CHAPIER CCill.

HARI said:—Takfe Vacha, Mfensi, Vilvam, Tagaram, Padma kesharam, N&gapushpam and Priyangu, in equal parts, pound them together, and make this-compound into sticks with the addition of water.' A man, who fumigates his body witK a burning fumigating stick of this kind, is sure to roam? about ig'ihis world as Eros incarnate.
 A plaster composed of Devadiro-powders and camphot pasted wkh ho-ney and applied to the mate re-productive organ is sure to fascinate 2 woman Airing an act of sexual congress. "Om, Rakta-Chandike', bring such and such a person under my control.^{1'} O Shankara, by 'putting a totem; composed of Gorochanft (ox-gall> pasted with one's own Mood on one's forehead and by ten thousand times reciting the foregoing Mantra, one is sure to fascinate* the whole world.
 A plaster composed of Samdhava, Krishna La van am, galls of fishes, and sugar pasted together with honey and clarifted butter may hej applied by a woman to her own-private parts before
 .sharing the bed of a man. The man, who will know her thus, will never visit any other woman in his life. A plaster composed of Shankhapushpi, VachA, MJtnsi, Somarŕji, and Phalgnfcun pasted together with buffalo hutter imparts a firmness fcb vaginal muscles and removes the flabbioess of the organ. Vadmas, culled with their stems, should be pasted wtth milk and clarified butter: and divided into pills. A dry pill, thus prepared and inserted into the maternal passage of a mother of ten children, will again make her as a virgin.